New Acknowledgement of Risks and Obligations Form

Please use the new Acknowledgement of Risks and Obligations form for 'no bookings required walks' such as Wednesday Walks.

Have I Walked with You?

A recent update to Bilby includes a handy new feature which lists shared activities in common.

1. Go to the Members list

2. Use the Quick members search to search for a member of interest

3. Use View to bring up the member's details

4. Scroll down to see the activities you have shared. Bingo!

Bilby Tagging and Email Alerts

1. When communicating with a single participant via a Note, tagging is not necessary. Only you as the activity leader and the participant can see the note
2. When communicating with all/multiple participants via the Message Board, tags ARE necessary (without @tags, no Bilby email alert is generated, and no one is aware of the note). Separate @tags by a least 1 space or, better still, place each @tag on a new line. This ensures that all Bilby email alerts are correctly generated
3. That said, Bilby email alerts of Message Board entries can be delayed. These email delays are beyond the control of Bilby. If an activity of yours is imminent and you are expecting Message Board responses from participants, it is good practice to check the Message Board directly.

July Activity Leaders

Thank you to the following leaders who completed trips in July:

Dave A, Jenny A, Garry B, Cynthia B, Trevor C, Luisa D M, Linda G, John K, Di McD, Stephen M, Dick M, Sal O, David P, Terrylea R, John E.

Activity Program is Thin

The activity program is a little thin at the moment. If you have the capacity, do run some trips in this bracing weather. All sorts of assistance is available – ideas for trips, mentors or co-leaders. Just ask me. It would be great for currently inactive and new leaders to provide some trips for members and guests to enjoy. Anything from half-day urban walks to multi-day expeditions would be gratefully received. The demand is there.
